

Wanted: Readers Bulletin Board Instructions

Supplies*:

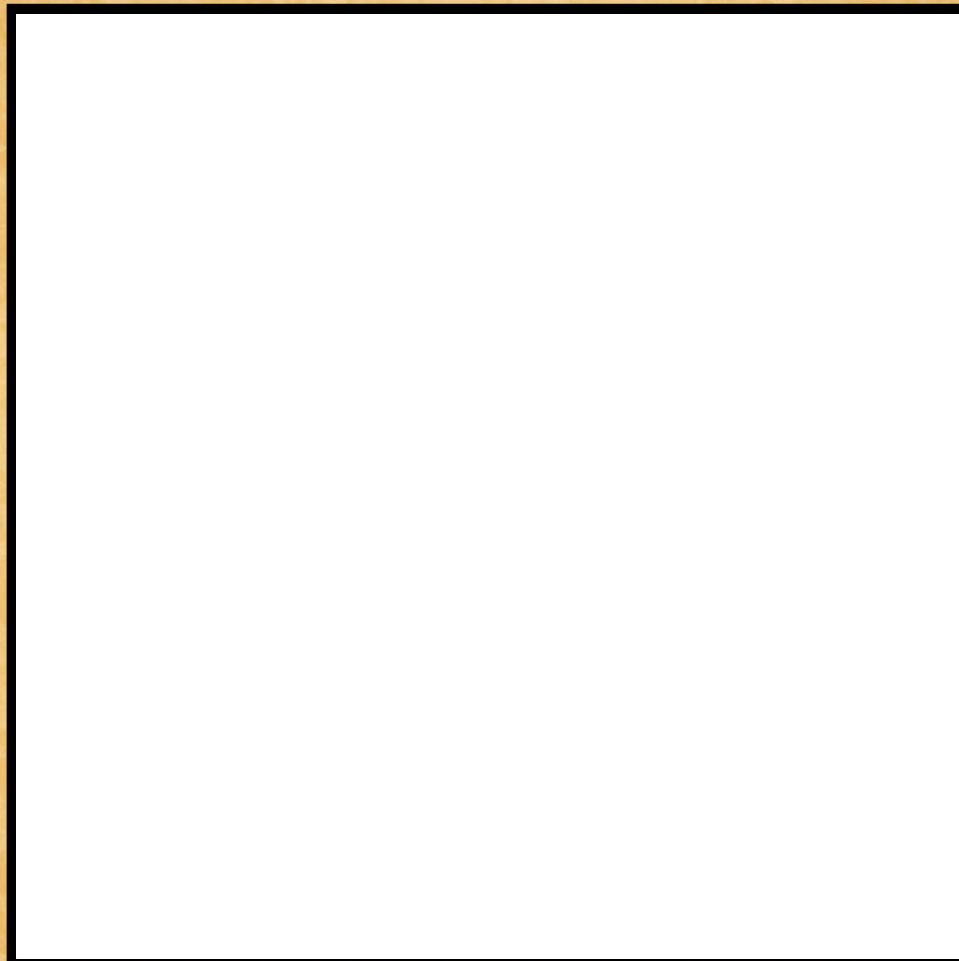

- Black paper roll
- Rope
- Printer
- Stapler
- Tape
- Scissors
- Utility knife
- Hot glue gun
- Spray adhesive
- Cardboard
- Red/white checkboard ribbon
- Light-colored pencil

Directions:

1. Cover a bulletin board in black paper.
2. Trim the bulletin board with a wide red-and-white checkerboard ribbon. Tape or staple the ribbon border in place.
3. With a light-colored pencil, write "Wanted: Readers!" on the black in cursive.
4. Use what you've written as your guide and apply hot glue along the pencil mark. Cover the glue with a length of rope until the rope spells out "Wanted: Readers!"
5. Print out the wanted sign template on pg. 2. Print out 5" square headshots of your students and glue the photos to the blank space.
6. Attach the finished wanted posters to the bulletin board.

*Remember, these are only suggestions. This project should be fun and creative, so use supplies you have on hand for substitutions.
