PIGGITY-WIGGITY JIGGITY JIG GOES TO DAD'S CAFÉ

Diana Neild / Philip Webb

- Return of a much-acclaimed character
- Fun and challenging language

Piggity-Wiggity starred in his first story in 2008, in a charming tale about the length of his name. In that story we had an oblique introduction to his dad's café (The Ravenous Snout) but this time Piggity-Wiggity is on a very special visit - just him and his mum - with a very special menu designed by Dad.

Piggity-Wiggity Jiggity Jig* won an Honour Award at the NZ Post Book Awards for Children and Young Adults 2009, and was selected by LIANZA as the National Read-aloud Book for Library Book Week in 2008.

Praise for the first title:

"Complemented beautifully by Webb's humours illustrations, Neild's faultless rhyme and imaginative text just trip off the tongue and begs to be read aloud to ages 3-7."—The Children's Bookshop, Kilbirnie

"Wonderful! Delightfully affirmative! The warm pastel watercolours and comic style exactly reflect the love that is embedded in the story."—John McKenzie, Principal Lecturer, Diploma of Children's Literature, University of Canterbury

"... funny and clever ... told in rhyming couplets that scan very well and make comprehension of difficult words great fun ... artwork is delightful and adds humour to the story ... a winner."—Margaret Kedian, Magpies.

Diana Neild A musician who lives in Palmerston North (and plays a mean saxophone), Diana has a wonderful ear for rhyme and rhythm and a very special love of this little piglet.

Philip Webb has brought life and humour to the Jig family from Karori. The Wellington-based illustrator has been illustrating children's books for years, including the Scholastic title Dragor, an Honour Book at the NZ Post Children's Book Awards.
