

Tangram Art Activities

Can you see the seven shapes in the square below? Each shape is called a 'tan'. You can create original tangram designs by putting the shapes together in different ways to form different pictures.

Trace the tans onto a thick piece of cardboard, then cut them out. Try to copy some of the designs below, then make up your own tangrams and see what pictures you can create!

