

Paws for Books Reading is Pawsitive Sign Instructions

Supplies*:

- Black poster board
- Glue
- Scissors
- White paint marker
- Printer

Directions:

1. Print and cut out the letters and paw prints on pages 2-6 and the blank lists on pages 7-8.
2. Arrange them on the black poster board and attach with glue, as shown.
3. Write "READING IS" in the space above with a white paint marker.
4. Have students fill in a list of books they have read on the blank lines.
5. Display posters in the library or around the school.

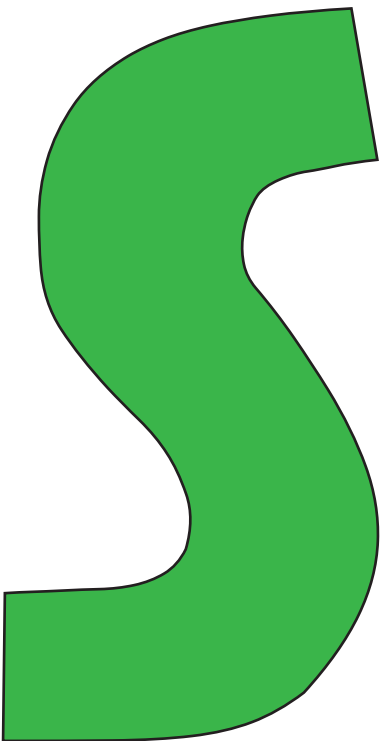

*Remember, these are only suggestions. This project should be fun and creative, so use supplies you have on hand for substitutions.
