51. Mortal Engines

336pp

Mortal Engines launched Philip Reeve's brilliantly imagined creation, the world of the Traction Era, where mobile cities fight for survival in a post-apocalyptic future. The first instalment introduces young apprentice Tom Natsworthy and the murderous Hester Shaw, flung from the fast-moving city of London into heart-stopping adventures in the wastelands of the Great Hunting Ground.

"Mortal Engines is a gripping adventure story set in a future world where moving cities trawl the globe. A magical and unique read, it immediately caught the attention of reviewers and book buyers. It was shortlisted for several awards and was the Gold Award winner at the Nestle Smarties Book Prize 2002 and the winner of the Blue Peter Book of the Year at the 2003 Awards". - Amazon

Mortal Engines

52. Journal of Curious Letters

400pp

13-year-old Tick receives a mysterious letter than unlocks worlds of possibilities (literally). If he can solve the 12 riddles and figure out the magic words, then he will reveal something extraordinary. He just doesn't know what that extraordinary event will be. Determined to reach the final clue, he meets some very strange people, including Master George and Mistress Jane, and makes some important friends along the way.

"Wonderful...Dashner shares with Rowling a nimble use of fancy, delayed revelation, and charm". - Chicago Sun Times

"The first volume of an outstanding new children's fantasy series, The Journal of Curious Letters is filled with adventure, humour, riddles, and, oh, yes danger". - Amazon

The 13th Reality

53. Dawn Raid

166pp

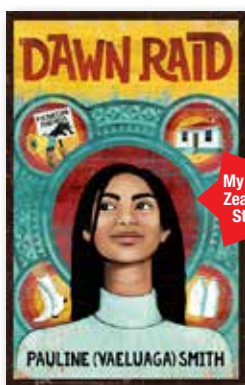

Like many 13-year-old girls, Sofia's main worries are how to get some groovy go-go boots, and how not to die of embarrassment giving a speech at school! But when her older brother Lenny starts talking about marches and protests and overstayers, and how Pacific Islanders are being bullied by the police for their passports and papers, a shadow is cast over Sofia's sunny teenage days. Through her heartfelt diary entries, we witness the terror of being dawn-raided and gain an insight into the courageous and tireless work of the Polynesian Panthers in the 1970s as they encourage immigrant families across New Zealand to stand up for their rights.

My New Zealand Story is a series of vividly imagined accounts of life in the past...making history come alive.

"Dawn Raid highlights the struggle of Pacific people during the 1970's. You feel as if you are right there in 1971 experiencing these events".

My New Zealand Story

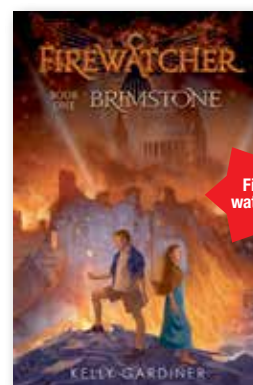

54. Brimstone

240pp

December 1940, London: Christopher Larkham finds an ancient Roman ring inscribed with a phoenix. As he takes shelter from the firestorm of the Blitz, the ring glows, and pushing open a door, he finds himself in 1666 and facing the Great Fire of London. Fire-and-brimstone preacher, Brother Blowbladder, and his men of the Righteous Temple have prayed for the ancient gods of fire to bring flames down upon London, a city of sin. Could Christopher be their messenger? Or was it the strange girl on the quay who drew him back in time? Why do the Righteous men wear the same phoenix symbol as the engraving on Christopher's ring? The Fire Watcher trilogy follows Christopher and his new friends as they race to untangle the truth of the phoenix ring, and face the greatest fires in the city's history.

"History and mystery wrapped up in a phenomenal time-travel tale". - Goodreads

"Brimstone is an exciting book and Christopher is a most engaging character. Gardiner has brought together many strands, time travel, history and action, all rolled into one exciting adventure that will prove fascinating for the reader". - ReadPlus

Four Christmases have passed since the world went to war in 1914. Struggling to survive in the trenches, close to enemy lines, amid the terror of gunfire and the whine of warplanes, Kiwi soldier Henry Hunt rescues a shaken little dog. He has no idea he'll soon be facing a disciplinary hearing. To Henry's relief, the Major allows the little foxie to live this time. Henry finds the dog is not only a comfort to his fellow soldiers on the battlefields of France, but a great ratter, too. Together, can they survive the Great War?

"Brutally sad and undeniably engrossing, the easy language and fast moving plot should immerse anyone with any interest in military history, and should especially appeal to fans of Michael Morpurgo. Highly recommended". - The Reader

HOW YOU CAN BE A DUFFY PARENT

HELP THEM CHOOSE

When your child receives their Book Offer brochure you can ask them which books they like. It could be a favourite author, genre or a book to read together.

GET EXCITED

When it's getting close to their Role Model assembly and book presentation kids love to see their parents are just as excited as they are. Talk about the books the children ordered and who their special Role Model is going to be.

TAKE SOME TIME OUT

When your child brings home their new books, ask if they would like you to read with them (or to them if they have just started school). Reading to your kids is a wonderful way to improve their reading and also a great way to spend time together.

GET INVOLVED

Find out when the school is having their Role Model Assembly, Duffy Theatre show or Mainfreight Award and join in the fun! Not only will these events give you a great insight into how the programme works in the school but it will give you some great things to discuss with your child afterwards.

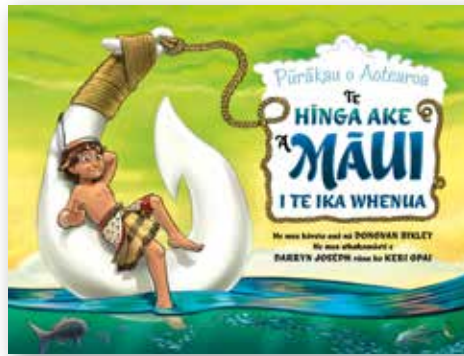

GIVE THE GIFT OF READING

Every November you will receive $5 Summer Reading catalogue from which you can choose books to give to your child at Christmas time for a price much lower than you would find in a bookstore. Receiving a book as a present from you tells your child that reading is something worthwhile.

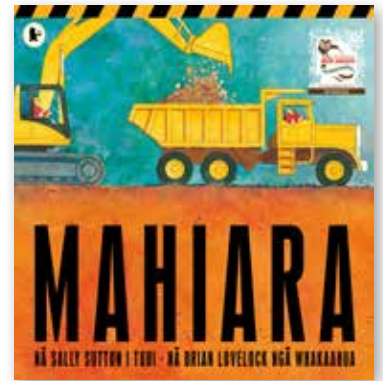

SUPPORT YOUR SCHOOL

Many schools are lucky enough to have the assistance of their parents in running the Duffy Books in Homes programme. You could offer to help label the books for a class, wrap the boxes of books in wrapping paper or even assist with the school's fundraising efforts. Any support you can offer the school is greatly appreciated.
