RHYS DARBY

Parent Corner

Hey parents!

Rhys Darby here, the comedian and actor guy from the telly! Last year, I was hugely excited with the release of my first Buttons McGinty book. Now, my second one is coming out in October and I couldn't be more pleased!

Growing up, I was what they called a reluctant reader. It wasn't that I couldn't read, it just seemed a lot of work to read all the words in a regular book, and I found graphic novels easier to get through. When one of my sons turned out to be the same (preferring to make up the stories himself or read comic books), I was inspired to write and illustrate a book for him.

The Top-Secret Undercover Notes of Buttons McGinty and The Top-Secret Interdimensional Notes of Buttons McGinty are the notebooks of a 12-year-old boy on an epic adventure. Both are full of funny drawings (by me), maps, lists and inventories and of course my signature humour, so there's no time to get bored.

In the NZ army, when I worked as a signaller, I learned Morse Code. In Buttons McGinty's action-journaling adventures, I finally found a use for it! Throughout these books, the reader has to decode messages. My son loved the book, as have thousands of other kids, both reluctant and enthusiastic readers. Hopefully your kids will love the adventure too!!!

COMMITTED TO TELLING KIWI Stories

At Scholastic we are 100% committed to telling children's stories by New Zealand authors and illustrators. In fact, each year we publish more uniquely Kiwi children's books than anyone else – including in te reo Māori.

Over the past five years we have published around 200 New Zealand picture books and novels. We believe in the rich cultural heritage of children's storytelling in Aotearoa, because we believe kids relate best when they can see themselves on the page. By helping children find the right book, we light a spark that opens 'a world of possible.'
