Enrolment at Redstone Junior High is at an all-time low since word got around that hostile mobs were spotted on campus. Principal Redstone will do just about anything to keep students from leaving to attend the rival school, but a growing unease is making this difficult. To make matters worse, frightened creepers alert Pixel that the S.A.M.D. is still alive and well and trying to harvest innocent mobs for their drops. When Tina suggests hosting a school party to boost morale, Pixel and her friends play along and devise their own secret plan to trap the S.A.M.D. and its evil leader, Smite. Will Pixel and her friends succeed, or will Tina's plan for revenge and Smite's dark powers stop them dead in their tracks? With creepers on the scene, one thing is sure: this party will end with a bang.

Age: 10+ Pages: 224 pp.

Glory knows that the dragon world is wrong about her being 'a lazy RainWing'. Maybe she wasn't meant to be one of the dragonets of destiny, but Glory is sharp and her venom is deadly...even if that's still a secret. So when the dragonets seek shelter in the rainforest, Glory is devastated to find that the treetops are full of RainWings that nap all day and know nothing of the rest of Pyrrhia. Worst of all, they don't realise or care that RainWings are going missing from their beautiful forest. But Glory and the dragonets are determined to find the missing dragons, even if it drags the peaceful RainWing kingdom where they never wanted to be – into the middle of the war.

In the shadows, trouble is brewing... When Starflight is stolen by his own tribe, he hopes to at least discover some of the long-held NightWing secrets - what magical powers they really have, who they're allied with in the war, and where they've been living all this time. But the truth about Starflight's tribe is more terrible than he ever imagined: Not only do the NightWings live in a dark, miserable place, but they've imprisoned several innocent RainWings there, too. Stranded and alone, Starflight only wants to get back to his friends. But the fate of two kingdoms now rests in his talons, and with no one to save him, Starflight will have to find a way to be brave... before it's too late.

Format: Paperback
Age: 10+ Pages: 224 pp.

Raina wakes up one night with a terrible upset stomach. Her mom has one, too, so it's probably just a bug. Raina eventually returns to school, where she's dealing with the usual highs and lows: friends, not-friends, and classmates who think the school year is just one long gross-out session. It soon becomes clear that Raina's tummy trouble isn't going away... and it coincides with her worries about food, school, and changing friendships. What's going on? Raina Telgemeier once again brings us a thoughtful, charming, and funny true story about growing up and gathering the courage to face and conquer your fears.

Raina can't wait to be a big sister. But once Amara is born, things aren't quite how she expected them to be. Amara is cute, but she's also a cranky, grouchy baby, and mostly prefers to play by herself. Their relationship doesn't improve much over the years, but when a baby brother enters the picture and later, something doesn't seem right between their parents, they realize they must figure out how to get along. They are sisters, after all. Raina uses her signature humour and charm in both present-day narrative and perfectly placed flashbacks to tell the story of her relationship with her sister, which unfolds during the course of a road trip from their home in San Francisco to a family reunion in Colorado.

Callie loves theatre. And while she would totally try out for her middle school's production, she's a terrible singer. Instead she's the set designer for the stage crew, and this year she's determined to create a set worthy of Broadway on a middle-school budget. But how can she, when she doesn't know much about carpentry, ticket sales are down, and the crew members are having trouble working together? Not to mention the onstage AND offstage drama that occurs once the actors are chosen, and when two cute brothers enter the picture, things get even crazier! Raina Telgemeier brings us another graphic novel featuring a diverse set of characters that humorously explores friendship, crushes, and all-around drama!

The Raven & Other Tales: A Graphic Horror Novel

RRP: $21.00

Author: Edgar Allan Poe & Pete Katz
Publisher: Quarto Childrens Books
ISBN: 9780857624109
Format: Paperback
Age: 12+ Pages: 160 pp.

On a dreary winter night, a grief-stricken man sits alone reading by a dying fire when there is a tap at the window. He goes to investigate and there enters a Raven. But what does this bird want? Is it a friend or some kind of demon? And why does it keep repeating the phrase 'Nevermore'? In this graphic adaptation of 'The Raven', Edgar Allan Poe's most celebrated narrative poem is brought to life by Pete Katz's superbly dark illustrations, along with several of his short stories. In 'The Fall of the House of Usher' a portent of doom lingers over an ancestral family home, while in 'The Masque of the Red Death' a horrific plague threatens to consume humanity. 'The Black Cat' features a cat who knows too much and a man who pays the ultimate price, and in 'The System of Doctor Tarr and Professor Fether' a curious visitor gets more than he bargained for at a sinister asylum.

Frankenstein: A Graphic Horror Novel

RRP: $21.00

Author: Mary Shelley & Pete Katz
Publisher: Quarto Childrens Books
ISBN: 9780857624086
Format: Paperback
Age: 15+ Pages: 160 pp.

With his mother dead from scarlet fever, Victor Frankenstein leaves his family in Geneva and goes to the University of Ingolstadt to study natural science, where he becomes obsessed with the idea of unlocking the secret of life itself. His dark experiments lead to success, but he is so horrified by his creation that he rejects it and flees. There follows a tragic and destructive chain of events. In this graphic adaptation of Mary Shelley's classic Gothic novel, Pete Katz's illustrations bring into poignant relief a story about humanity: of one being's desire to raise himself above all human and natural laws, and another being's earnest desire to be treated as human and to live and love among us.

The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde & The Body Snatcher: A Graphic Horror Novel

RRP: $21.00

Author: Robert Louis Stevenson & Robert Smith
Publisher: Quarto Childrens Books
ISBN: 9780857624093
Format: Paperback
Age: 15+ Pages: 160 pp.

Dr Jekyll is an upstanding gentleman, a philanthropist and a well-respected member of society. So why is he linked to the young Mr Hyde, an unpleasant young man of dubious morals and hideous appearance? That is precisely what Jekyll's lawyer, Mr Utterson, sets out to discover. Utterson's enquiries lead him deep into the foggy streets of London and before he knows it, he is on the hunt for a murderer. But all is not quite what it seems and he begins to suspect that much darker forces are at play... This murky tale of human nature's capacity for evil is given a new lease of life by Robert Smith's vivid illustrations in this graphic adaptation of Stevenson's iconic horror novella. Also included is the short story 'The Body Snatcher', a gruesome tale of grave-robbing and deception.

Dracula: A Graphic Horror Novel

RRP: $21.00

Author: Bram Stoker
Publisher: Quarto Childrens Books
ISBN: 9780857624079
Format: Paperback
Age: 15+ Pages: 160 pp.

Young solicitor Jonathan Harker travels deep into Transylvania to assist Count Dracula in the purchase of a London estate. But he soon realises that Castle Dracula holds dread secrets and nothing is what it seems, least of all its lord and master. Soon the menace is spreading west and unsettling events begin to happen in England: an unmanned ship runs aground, young Lucy Westenra is afflicted with sleepwalking and strange puncture wounds on her neck, and an inmate at Dr John Seward's mental asylum raves about the coming of the 'master'. Nothing is sacred or safe, not even Jonathan Harker's beloved Mina. They must join forces with Professor Van Helsing and a band of allies in a race against time to stop the curse of the undead casting its shadow over London forever. One of the most powerful horror stories ever written. In this graphic adaptation of the classic tale, Matt Pagett's illustrations bring the conflict between good and evil to the fore in an action-packed adventure.

Book one in the #1 New York Times best-selling Descendants series – now in the wickedly fun, action-packed graphic novel format. Twenty years ago, all the evil villains were banished from the kingdom of Auradon to the Isle of the Lost. Stripped of their magical powers, the villains now live in total isolation, forgotten by the world. Mal learns from her mother, Maleficent, that the key to true darkness, the Dragon's Eye, is located inside her sceptre in the forbidden fortress on the far side of the island. The eye is cursed and whoever retrieves it will be knocked into a deep sleep for a thousand years. But Mal has a plan to capture it. In their quest for the Dragon's Eye, four kids begin to realise that just because you come from an evil family tree, being good ain't so bad.

A rip-roaring graphic novel adventure about the latest in a famous family of vampire-hunting pigs, inspired by legendary monster slayer Van Helsing! Ham Helsing is the descendant of a long line of adventurers and monster hunters—who don't often live to rest on their laurels. Ham has always been the odd pig out, preferring to paint or write poetry instead of inventing dangerous (dumb) new ways to catch dangerous creatures. His brother Chad was the daredevil carrying on the family legacy of leaping before looking, but after his death, it's down to Ham. Reluctantly, he sets out on his first assignment, to hunt a vampire. But Ham soon learns that people aren't always what they seem and that you need a good team around you to help save your bacon!
